

December 29, 2009

TO: Superintendents, HR Directors, Certified Staff
FROM: Connie J. Pollard

RE: Deficiencies on current teaching certificates

PTSB will no longer require applicants who have deficiencies to submit documentation of meeting these deficiencies.

The new Wyoming Rules and Regulations Governing Licensure for School Personnel became effective November 16, 2009. One change in the new rules is that PTSB has moved from state teacher preparation program standards to national Specialized Professional Association standards. Deficiencies were based on previous state teacher preparation standards.